Unit 111 News by Cathy Marsteller

I am sitting here Halloween eve, wearing my witch's hat, trying to be brilliant. Since that didn't happen, I'll just report the facts!

We had 3 rank changes:

The results of our September & October unit games will follow:

Shirley Schaffer reported that a new game was received with great enthusiasm in Youngstown. It is called “8 is enuff.” It is a team game. A, B, and C players are all given a number that represents their skill level. No more than 8 points can be on a team. This gets a combination of all skills playing together. The 1st winners of this game were Paul Neidlinger, Maureen Irwin, Jane Edmiston, & Sylvia Fullerman. There are hopes of this becoming a regular event!

Our sectional tournament was held in September. Our director was Mike who did a great job. The food was great and the attendance was ok, but there was room for a lot more! I will only report our unit's winners here.

Open Pairs 1st session:

It is now time to talk about our holiday parties! The following is the information I have at press time.

The unit party will be held at 10AM at A La Carte (note that this is a change of location for this party). The cost is $14 each which includes bridge.

The next party is the Warren Club which will be held at our club located in the Scope building in Warren. The caterer will be the same as last year- the chef from the Buckeye Club! Cocktails will be at 5:30 with dinner to follow. Email me or call me at 330-652-7265 for reservations. Cost not available at this time.

The next party is the Youngstown Club. This year it will be held at their club and will be a brunch catered by the A La Carte – Saturday, December 20.

Remember all parties require a reservation. We always have a lot of fun at each one- Please come join us at as many as you can! Happy Holidays! See you at the bridge table.

Tri- County Themes by Alex Bealles

Question: How many bridge players does it take to change a light bulb? Answer at the end of the article.

The holiday season is here again. If the rest of Unit 229 is like me, this means lots of extra bridge so I don't miss any parties. Also, don't forget STaC week, the 8th through the 14th of December. Ellwood, New Castle and Butler are all participating.

Due to scheduling, I just now have the opportunity to recognize Unit 229 performances at the Labor Day regional. In the Wednesday Afternoon 299'er Pairs, Sheila Rabovsky and Gary Marcus came in second in Flight B. Henry Nelson and Alex Bealles came in first in B in the Wednesday Open Pairs. On Thursday evening, Ruth Nelson and Mary Lou Spine came in second in the 299'er Pairs. Carl Bonfiglio's team came in second in Bracket III if the Thur/Fri knockouts. In the Friday Swiss, Lorraine Worsley's team finished first in B and her partner, Richard Fowkes, became a life master. In the Sat/Sun knockouts, Sheila Rabovsky's team finished second in Bracket IV. Janice Smith and Doris Hess and their teammates finished second in Bracket II of Sunday's compact knockouts. On Sunday, Cynthia Custer and her team finished second in D in the B/C/D Swiss. Congratulations all!

Two pairs from Unit 229 did well at the Pittsburgh Fall sectional. On Saturday, Lorraine Worsley and Bob Freeman came in 2nd overall and first in B in the two session Open Pairs. On Sunday, Henry Nelson, Alex Bealles and their teammates came in second in B in the Open Swiss.

At our September Unit game, Barbara Bellino and Jim Wheeler were first overall and first N/S. Henry Nelson and Alex Bealles were first E/W. In October, Jim Wheeler and John Samarco were first overall and first N/S. Barbara Bellino and Sally Veauthier were first E/W.

Here's a story I've been saving for a few years in hopes that the declarer won't remember themselves if they read this. Playing in 4S with a 5-4 fit, missing only the king, declarer led the jack from the dummy and played the ace from his hand, dropping the stiff king off-side. Declarer, then a novice (but no longer), said in all seriousness, "Eight ever, nine never." Now, my partner had opened the bidding and rated to have all the missing high card points, so playing for the drop was the best bridge play. However, in a thirteen table game, only one other declarer found the play.

Answer to the riddle: It takes two bridge players to change a light bulb, but only because one of them is a dummy. If you have a better answer, please it to me at awbealles@zoom-internet.net. If I receive any, I'll print the funniest ones in the next issue. Until then...

Pittsburgh Potpourri by Mary Anne McNeirney

We face a new era. As I write this, next week we learn who will direct our future, our hopes for a greater and better United States. We hope our new leader will emulate and exceed our great past presidents in inspiring us to remake our nation as a beacon of goodness radiating light, peace, liberty, and honest respect for all our fellow sojourners in our troubled world. May God guide him and us to reach this objective.

Pittsburgh Bridge also faces a new era. Lou Joseph who served us ably for the past two years as our President will leave that position on November 21. It is our Board's Planning meeting and we will choose a new President whom we hope will carry on the tradition of exemplary leadership evidenced by Lou.

I'll mention a few of Lou's outstanding actions that bettered our unit's welfare. He persuaded two tremendous, industrious innovative, and enthusiastic ladies to join the Board. These individuals, Sue McQuillan and Sharon Rohr, became our hostesses with the mostest; they chaired our parties and some sectionals with élan and success. He also cajoled Gail Hastings to work with these magic makers to make our Pro Am game a sterling event. Another of his coups was to appoint Barb and Ken Bergman as sectional tournament chairmen for 2009. They negotiated for three sectionals at the Masonic Center, which they agreed to chair. The last sectional they ran was the best we have had since I started to play bridge in the 70's. As they work tirelessly to achieve greatness, we can anticipate wonders again. (Lou's shoes will be a challenge to fill.)

The Pro Am Game was a delight and raised almost $1000 for Arsenal House. Alex Bealles directed it and made a contribution as well. He is one of the class acts playing our game. The big winner in the competition that night was Wayne Obitz whose partner was pro Margie Tamres. At the Instant Matchpoint games, the winners were Patty and Richard Katz and Mary and Gail Carns. This special game was made more special because it was a potluck party. Our December Thursday STaC Unit sponsored evening affair will have the same format. Food and fun will prevail.

Another wonderful day in our bridge world was the Fossick-Goodman Swiss team competition. Richard Zack planned parties are always elegant, tasteful, beautifully presented and fun. This party ranks as one of the best. The winners of the bridge competition were Joe Brady, Frank Cordier, Barbara and Jim Klein. But anyone who attended was a winner. Our October Sectional was also a winner. Judy Haffner and Asim Ulke, the chairs, made sure that all who came enjoyed abundant hospitality and the opportunity for a fine competition. The list of winners should be elsewhere in this publication but again all who attended were winners.

STaC, holiday parties, and the Rock'n'Roll' Regional indicate more fun to come.

Erie Excitement by Bev Walz

Although we've already had snow, December brings thoughts of Christmas and holiday shopping. The November issue of the BRIDGE BULLETIN had some good suggestions for bridge books as stocking stuffers. There was also the suggestion of buying an ACBL membership for a friend as a gift. There are many helpful articles and accumulating master points is a real challenge while playing our favorite game.

Congratulations to Doug Wells and Al Walz who became Bronze Life Masters recently. Others in our unit who received special recognition are Richard Perfetto and Nancy DiCola who are Jr. masters, Nancy Griewahn and Elise Nick who are Regional Masters, and Jim Davis as NABC Master /Congrats to Mark Sylvester and Frances Tseng who won first place in the North American Pairs held in Meadville in October. Each of them will receive $700 toward the Houston NABC in 2009.

Erie held a new Pro-Am game in October that was a big success. There were two groups with eight and eight 1/2 tables respectively. Winners of one group N-S were Frances Konkol and Mel Skol; E-W winners were Tom Ritter and Lou Allen. The other N-S champions were Sheila Sullivan and Randy Cox and E-W Norma Herbstritt and Mary Tseng. A special Halloween party/game featured cider and donuts provided by director Shirley Irish and included the attendance of a witch.

In November a surprise birthday party was held for Mark Sylvester at the conclusion of his Saturday bridge class on November 8. That "marked" (no pun intended) the last class of the session Mark had been teaching on

TWO OVER ONE. There were 26 students who had enjoyed the special Saturday sessions. Also in November, the monthly Sunday afternoon game sponsored by the EBA was held on the 16th. These afternoon games are especially enjoyed by those players who can't attend the Wednesday evening events.

Every December we have a Pro-Am Christmas party which includes our favorite game and lots of good food. Have you ever noticed how bridge players like to eat!? Be sure to attend the one this year which will be held on December 10 and is sure to get you into a holiday mood. And speaking of holidays, hope yours is a good one.

Whistfully Yours by Bev Carter

WOW ... this time of the year is really busy bridge! September started our Team of Four (Vichill League) competition with 35 teams participating in this monthly event. If you would like to sub in this event, please contact Peter Miller 216/752-7767. October brought us ACBL Club Appreciation games and the popular partial gold point team event; November hosts our Sectional in Solon and December the District STaC games (which will be held the week of December 8th through the 14th). Be sure to check with your local club director or the STaC website: www.D5bridge.com to make sure your club is participating. By the time you read this, most of these events will have already taken place so please check our website: whistclub.org for results.

Did you hear about the husband and wife returning from a local Regional Tournament (having fared not too well at all) who were driving down a country road? They were passing a field when they spotted a herd of donkeys. "Look" said the wife "jack----". "Relatives?" asked the husband. "Yes," said the wife - "yours!!!" Which brings us to our Rock and Roll Regional coming up January 14th through 18th at the Holiday Inn, Rockside. There are many events especially for newer players—free lectures between sessions on Thursday and Saturday and a Future Master Reception between sessions on Friday. A review of the hands played on Friday is held at the Reception and any and all bridge related questions are answered by our guest lecturer, Ron Kral. We urge all you "newer to bridge" players to attend this event. We promise you a really good time! For a complete listing of events, please check the Tournaments page on our website. We hope to see you all there. What with the price of gas down and our session fees one of the lowest in the ACBL you can't find a better bridge bargain anywhere!

We are very happy to announce our Unit is sponsoring a bridge class for middle school students in the Parma school system. It is being taught by Celeste and Eugene Krejsa. The students are really enthusiastic about the game and think it is lots of fun. If you would like to see your school system involved, please contact our Unit President Barb Bacon 440/331-8702 or by email at bcbacon@cox.net or our District Coordinator Jan Assini 330/995-8629 for information on how to get this started. ACBL provides cards, T-shirts, textbooks, lesson plans, etc. free of charge to participants.

Congratulations to Jane Vickery of Cleveland for becoming a Silver Life Master recently. The November Ace of Clubs and Mini-McKenney standings are now available. Again, check our website for a complete listing. Also, congratulations to Phil Becker and Niel Waletzky for coming in 2nd overall at the NAOP in Flight A and to Doris Weil and Nancy Fingerhut for coming in 3rd in Flight C.

Lastly, we were so sad to hear of the passing of one of bridge's greatest fans and supporters — Roni Gitchel. She was always there pitching in to make our Regionals the best of the best. Our condolences to her Pennsylvania Unit and District. She will truly be missed!
